If you are arriving by bus or passenger vehicle at Miller Theatre, please read the important information below regarding the show.

PARKING AND CHECK-IN LOGISTICS

School Buses:

- Please arrive with time to drop off students in the loading zone in front of the Miller Theater on Broad Street.
- Type or print your school name on a piece of paper and place it in the front right corner of the bus windshield in plain view.
- Have staff and students stay in the bus; a staff member or volunteer will greet you and show your group to their seats.
- Bus drivers will be directed on where to park along Ellis Street behind the theater.
- Buses will load in the rear of the building onto the waiting Ellis Street buses, dismissed in the order in which they arrived.

All others:

- There is no managed parking lot for passenger vehicles at this event. Parking is available throughout downtown in parking wells on Broad Street and on the street.
- Please arrive with some extra time to find parking and your way to the Miller Theater.
- Wait until your entire party has arrived before checking in with our staff and ushers. If you are waiting for your group, we'd kindly ask that you do not wait such that you are blocking the entry to the theater.
- When checking in, give the name of the group or person who reserved seats.
- Ushers will show you to your seats.
